

Figure 1 is a horizontal bar chart illustrating the percentage of research funding for various scientific disciplines from 1996 to 2018. The y-axis lists 28 disciplines, and the x-axis shows years from 1996 to 2018. The bars are green, except for 'Business, Management and Accounting' which is blue. The chart shows varying trends: some disciplines like 'Physics and Astronomy' and 'Psychology' show significant growth, while others like 'Agricultural and Biological Sciences' remain relatively stable.
